Holy Communion at University Presbyterian Church

Every believer in Jesus Christ who is baptized and who admits to complete dependence upon Jesus Christ for forgiveness and salvation is invited to this table.

This is real food and drink. If you doubt, question or deny Christ's sacrifice on your behalf then pass these elements of bread and wine by. They are not food and drink to you but judgement on your unbelief.

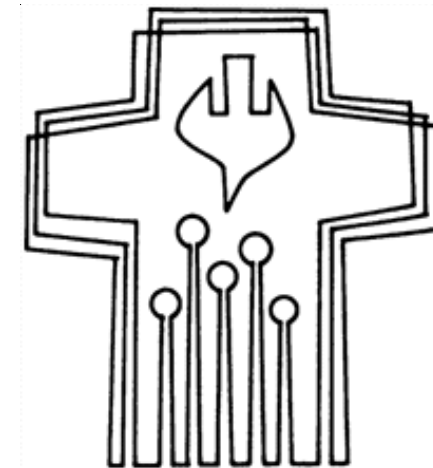

If you seek fellowship with God to be reconciled to your Father and freed from those things that bind you. We suggest you ask God in prayer to send His Holy Spirit to you, to open your heart to his grace and to give you faith.

Wine is offered in the outer ring of each tray as the standard element. For those whose conscience is uncomfortable with wine, grape juice is available in the inner rings.
